

Brand and Model	Price
Full-suspension models
* Cannondale Jekyll 400	$1,100
* Specialized FSR XC Pro	$1,200
* Trek Fuel 80	$1,150
* Giant NRS 2	$1,450
Gary Fisher Sugar +4	$1,100
Front-suspension models
* Gary Fisher Marlin	$450
* Specialized Rockhopper	$440
* Trek 4500	$440
* Raleigh M60	$450
Giant Yukon	$440
Schwinn Mesa GSD	$500
GT Avalanche 2.0 Disc	$500
Mongoose Rockadile ALD	$400
Hybrid models
* Giant Cypress LX	$470
* Jamis Tangier	$480
* Gary Fisher Nirvana	$470
Specialized Crossroads Elite	$425
Comfort models
* Jamis Explorer 2.0	$300
* GT Timberline	$300
* Trek Navigator 100	$300
* Schwinn Sierra GS	$300
Specialized Expedition	$280
Raleigh SC30	$290
Diamondback Wildwood	$285

Note: The items with an asterisk are Consumer Reports' Quick Picks. Within each category, the bikes are listed in order of best performance.<sup>2</sup>

Display 1.39

<sup>2</sup>From Bicycles: More bike for the buck, © 2004, by Consumers Union of the U.S., Inc., Yonkers, NY 10703-1057, a nonprofit organization. Reprinted with permission from the July, 2004 issue of CONSUMER REPORTS® for educational purposes only. No commercial use of photocopying permitted. Log onto www.consumerreports.org.